

Will Lansing Is the “Real Deal” in Real Estate He’ll “Wow” Your Audience!

Will Lansing is no ordinary real estate investor. After skillfully building a real estate investing empire making over $30-million a year in revenues, Will is counted as one of the nation’s top real estate deal makers and educators. Will takes a different angle than most experts in detailing and outlining the true dangers and challenges of creative real estate investing, and how one truly needs to build a business in this kind of marketplace.

His home study program, “The Real Deal: 7 Systems to Avoid Failure and Break Through to Real Estate Success” reveals the secrets, strategies, and systems that he personally used to make his mark as a real estate investor.

Will speaks passionately to audiences about creating wealth through real estate investing and how to avoid the costly mistakes that many others fail to reveal. He delivers an enjoyable presentation that’s rich with content, know-how, practical advice, and inspiration.

In his most requested presentation, “7 Big Mistakes of Real Estate Investing in 2007,” Will walks investors through the pitfalls of building an investment business and offers solid strategies, tactics, and smart business moves to keep people from making costly mistakes.
